NATIONWIDE
WEEK WITHOUT VIOLENCE
October 20th - 25th 2025

A NATIONAL CALL TO SUPPORT

Safe Beginnings: Protecting Mothers, Nurturing Futures

This year's theme focuses on supporting mothers and children in building healthier, safer futures. YWCAs across the nation are coming together to advocate for meaningful change in:

- Maternal and infant health disparities
- The need for safe, stable housing
- Increased risk of domestic violence for mothers
- Barriers to leaving abuse, including financial and legal challenges

LOCAL ACTION FOR NATIONAL CHANGE

For YWCA Tri-County Area, supporting women and families isn't just a mission — it's a commitment to building a safer, more equitable future. This year, during Week Without Violence, we stand with YWCAs nationwide around the theme Safe Beginnings: Protecting Mothers, Nurturing Futures to help create a world where mothers and children are free from violence. Join us for the Week Without Violence Block Event on Saturday, October 25, and be part of the change. See highlights from a past event: tinyurl.com/WWV21Video
